Re: United States v. Adam Lambert, 20 CR 469 (RA)

Dear Judge Abrams,

The Government writes on behalf of the parties and Probation to provide an update to the Court and respectfully to request an adjournment of the appearance scheduled on Monday, October 30, 2023 at 12:00 PM in these violation of supervised release proceedings. As anticipated when the parties were last before the Court, on or about October 17, 2023, the defendant appeared in New York County Supreme Court and entered a guilty plea to one count of Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the Fifth Degree, in violation of New York Penal Law § 220.06(1). To the surprise of the parties, however, the defendant was not also sentenced on that date. At this time, the parties anticipate that at the next appearance before the Court, the defendant will admit certain specifications pending against him and proceed to sentencing before the Court; however, because both parties wish for the defendant to proceed to sentencing here, if possible, after the promised sentence of 30 months' imprisonment and two years' post-release supervision is imposed in the state court proceedings, the parties with Probation respectfully request that the Court adjourn these violation of supervised release proceedings to a date and time of convenience to the Court during the week of Monday, December 11, 2023.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney
